

Code of Conduct

Members

This is the code of conduct for the Federal Union Students Tilburg (hereafter: F.U.S.T.). This Code of Conduct has been drawn up based on the values of F.U.S.T. and is therefore in direct line with its vision. It describes the behaviours that are expected of all members of F.U.S.T.. Deviation from the acts stated in this code of conduct will result in consequences. The board will determine the consequences of deviations, based on the circumstances around the based acts.

As a member of F.U.S.T., I declare:

- That I treat others with respect. This entails that I will refrain from any verbal or physical acts that in any way may come across as hurtful, aggressive, or discriminatory.
- That I refrain from any verbal or physical acts that in whatever way may come across as sexual intimidation or sexual harassment.
- That I refrain from any verbal or physical acts that in whatever way may harm the name and/or reputation of F.U.S.T. and/or its partners, that may be contrary to morality or the public order, or that may call for or express consent to unlawful acts.
- That I refrain from using or being under the influence of any resources as named on the lists within the Opium Act at activities that are connected with F.U.S.T..
- That I refrain from damaging or destroying any property not directly belonging to them, whether it be personal or public property.
- That I refrain from bullying others and from giving others the feeling that they are not or less welcome within F.U.S.T. and its associated events.
- That I refrain from misusing or violating another's privacy.
